Possible conflict of interest.

The optimum number shall be related to the capacity of a director to perform his duties diligently in general.

The Chief Executive Officer and other executive directors shall submit themselves to a low indicative limit on membership in other corporate Boards. The same low limit shall apply to independent, non-executive directors who serve as full-time executives in other corporations. In any case, the capacity of directors to serve with diligence shall not be compromised.

b. Audit Committee

The audit committee shall be composed of at least three (3) members of the Board. For the first year of effectivity of this Manual, the Committee composition is preferably to include one (1) Independent Member. For the succeeding years, however, there must always be one (1) independent Member in the Committee.

Each member shall have adequate understanding at least of competence at most of the company’s financial management systems and environment.

The audit committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- Check all financial reports against its compliance with both the internal financial management handbook and pertinent accounting standards, including regulatory requirements.
Perform oversight financial management functions specifically in the areas of managing credit, market, liquidity, operational, legal and other risks of the Company, and crisis management.

Pre-approve all audit plans, scope and frequency one (1) month before the conduct of external audit.

Perform direct interface functions with the internal and external auditors.

Elevate to international standards the accounting and auditing processes, practices and methodologies, by developing a definitive timetable within which the accounting system of the Company will be 100% International Accounting Standard (IAS) compliant, in so far as consistent with the Philippine's Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP), and an accountability statement that will specifically identify officers and/or personnel directly responsible for the accomplishment of such task.

Develop a transparent financial management system that will ensure the integrity of internal control activities throughout the company through a step-by-step procedures and policies handbook that will be used by the entire organization.

3. The Corporate Secretary

The Corporate Secretary is an officer of the company and perfection in performance and no surprises are expected of him. Likewise, his loyalty to the mission, vision and specific business objectives of the corporate entity come with his duties.
The Corporate Secretary shall be a Filipino citizen.

Considering his varied functions and duties, he must possess administrative and interpersonal skills and if he is not the general counsel, then he must have some legal skills. He must also have some financial and accounting skills.

The Board of Directors may elect an Assistant Corporate Secretary who may act in behalf of the Corporate Secretary in the latter’s absence.

The Corporate Secretary and/or the Assistant Corporate Secretary shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- Gather and analyze all documents, records and other information essential to the conduct of his duties and responsibilities to the Company.

- As to agenda, get a complete schedule thereof at least for the current year and put the Board on notice before every meeting.

- Assist the Board in making business judgment in good faith and in the performance of their responsibilities and obligations.

- Attend all Board meetings and maintain record of the same.

V

REPORTORIAL OR DISCLOSURE SYSTEM
OF COMPANY'S CORPORATE GOVERNANCE POLICIES

The reports or disclosures required under this Manual shall be prepared and submitted to the Commission by the responsible Committee or officer through the Company's Compliance Officer;

Date: 5-6-2007 Time: 10:05:52 am

All material information, i.e., anything that could potentially affect share price, shall be publicly disclosed. Such information shall include earnings results, acquisition or disposal of assets, board changes, related party transactions, shareholdings of directors and changes to ownership.

Other information that shall always be disclosed includes remuneration (including stock options) of all directors and senior management, corporate strategy, and off balance sheet transactions.

All disclosed information shall be released via the approved stock exchange procedure for company announcements as well as through the annual report.

The Board shall commit at all times to fully disclose material information dealings. It shall cause the filing of all required information for the interest of the stakeholders.

VI
SHAREHOLDERS' BENEFIT

The company recognizes that the most cogent proof of good corporate governance is that which is visible to the eyes of its investors. Therefore the following provisions are issued for the guidance of all internal and external parties concerned, as governance covenant between the company and all its investors:

A. Rights of Investors/Minority Interests

The Board shall be committed to respect the following rights of the stockholders:

1. Voting Right

   Date: 5-6-2007 Time: 10:10:38 AM

   Shareholders shall have the right to elect, remove and replace directors and vote on certain corporate acts in accordance with the Company

   www.secc.gov.ph

   User Name: BINDOY
Cumulative voting shall be used in the election of directors.

A director shall not be removed without cause if it will deny minority shareholders representation on the Board.

2. Power of Inspection

All shareholders shall be allowed to inspect corporate books and records including minutes of Board meetings and stock registries in accordance with the Company Code, provided that the inspection shall be done only for a legitimate purpose and during reasonable office hours and at no cost to the Company. The annual reports, including financial statements, to be provided by the Company to its stockholders shall, however, be for the account of the Company.

3. Right to Information

The Shareholders shall be provided, upon request, with periodic reports which disclose personal and professional information about the directors and officers and certain other matters such as their holdings of the company’s shares, dealings with the company, relationships among directors and key officers, and the aggregate compensation of directors and officers.

The minority shareholders shall be granted the right to propose the holding of a meeting, and the right to propose items in the agenda of the meeting, provided the items are for legitimate business purposes.

The minority shareholders shall have access to any and all information relating to matters for which the management is accountable for and to those relating to matters for which the management shall include such information and, if not included, then the minority shareholders shall be allowed to propose to include such matters in the agenda of stockholders' meeting, being within the definition of "legitimate purposes".

4. Right to Dividends

Shareholders shall have the right to receive dividends subject to the discretion of the Board.

The company shall be compelled to declare dividends when its retained earnings shall be in excess of 400% of its paid-in capital stock, except: a) when justified by definite corporate expansion projects or programs approved by the Board or b) when the Company is prohibited under any loan agreement with any financial institution or creditor, whether local or foreign, from declaring dividends without its consent, and such consent has not been secured; or c) when it can be clearly shown that such retention is necessary under special circumstances obtaining in the Company, such as when there is a need for special reserve for probable contingencies.

5. Appraisal Right

The shareholders shall have appraisal right or the right to dissent and demand payment of the fair value of their shares in the manner provided for under Section 82 of the Corporation Code of the Philippines, under any of the following circumstances.
• In case any amendment to the articles of incorporation has the effect of changing or restricting the rights of any stockholders or class of shares, or of authorizing preferences in any respect superior to those of outstanding shares of any class, or of extending or shortening the term of corporate existence.

• In case of sale, lease, exchange, transfer, mortgage, pledge or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporate property and assets as provided in the Company Code; and

• In case of merger or consolidation.

It shall be the duty of the directors to promote shareholder rights, remove impediments to the exercise of shareholders' rights and allow possibilities to seek redress for violation of their rights. They shall encourage the exercise of shareholders' voting rights and the solution of collective action problems through appropriate mechanisms. They shall be instrumental in removing excessive costs and other administrative or practical impediments to shareholders participating in meetings and/or voting in person. The directors shall pave the way for the electronic filing and distribution of shareholder information necessary to make informed decisions subject to legal constraints.

VII
MONITORING AND ASSESSMENT

Each Committee shall report regularly to the Board of Directors.

Date: 5-6-2007  Time: 10:12:28 AM

The Compliance Officer shall establish an evaluation system to determine and measure compliance with this Manual. Any violation thereof shall subject the responsible officer or employee to the penalty provided under Part VIII of this Manual.

WWW.SEC.GOV.PH  User Name: BINDOY
The establishment of such evaluation system, including the features thereof, shall be disclosed in the company's annual report (SEC Form 17-A), or in such form of report that is applicable to the Company. The adoption of such performance evaluation system must be covered by a Board approval.

This Manual shall be subject to quarterly review unless the same frequency is amended by the Board.

VIII

PENALTIES FOR NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THE MANUAL

To strictly observe and implement the provisions of this manual, the following penalties shall be imposed, after notice and hearing, on the company's directors, officers and staff in case of violation of any of the provision of this Manual:

- In case of first violation, the subject person shall be reprimanded.

- Suspension from office shall be imposed in case of second violation. The duration of the suspension shall depend on the gravity of the violation.

- For third violation, the maximum penalty of removal from office shall be imposed.

The commission of a third violation of this manual by any member of the board of the company or its subsidiaries and affiliates shall be a sufficient cause for removal from directorship.

Date: 5-6-2007 Time: 10:13:12 AM
The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for determining violation/s through notice and hearing and shall recommend to the Chairman of the Board the imposable penalty for such violation, for further review and approval of the Board.

The foregoing Manual on Corporate Governance is hereby approved for implementation by the Board of Directors of the Company as attested and confirmed by the Chairman and the Corporate Secretary this 29 day of August 2002, in Pasig City.
