(a) For warrants, options, convertible securities, and other equity securities, the number of securities exercisable under each exercise agreement is determined in accordance with the terms of each agreement.

(b) The number of shares of common stock under the option agreements is determined by multiplying the number of option agreements by the number of shares of common stock under each agreement.

(c) The total number of common shares of the registering issuer is calculated by adding the shares of common stock of the registering issuer to the shares of common stock to be issued.

(d) The shares of common stock to be outstanding after the transaction are calculated by subtracting the shares of common stock to be issued from the total number of common shares of the registering issuer.
